

FROM THE TEAM

Some words are really over used and 'scandal' is one of them. Everything is a scandal from MP's gardens to celebrity affairs. We spend our lives jumping from scandal to scandal.

But there is one story that can be traced right through history to the world today. It's the scandal of how God treats people who never listen. And that's the theme of this year's conference.

Jonah is a man who runs away from God, but God pursues him to send a message to a lost generation: that is Scandalous Grace.

We're really exciting to have Liam Goligher as our main speaker (and no, this isn't his solo career!). Liam is an outstanding speaker and Bible teacher.

I hope this brochure gives you a better idea of what to expect at the Youth Conference. The conference is a great chance to make new friends, meet with old ones and share good food and great teaching. We'd love to see you there, whether this will be your first time or you're a Youth Conference regular.

See you in March!

Matt and the team...

THIS YEARS HOUSE PARENTS

David and Martha:

We're delighted to have the MacPherson's as our House Parents this year. David and Martha are a wonderfully hospitable couple and it's great to have them with us. Having been missionaries in the rural Peru, they bring an exotic feel to the Conference. David is now the Minister in Bon Accord Free Church, Aberdeen - perhaps not so exotic

THIS YEARS SPEAKER

Liam Goligher:

Our main speaker this year is Dr. Liam Goligher, minister of Duke Street Church, London. He is a hugely respected speaker, author and pastor. He is also a native Scot. Recently he published The Jesus Gospel: Rediscovering the lost message. He is married to Christine and they have five children.
