

WfM Report 2009/10

The following is an overview of the work undertaken by the WfM Committee over the past year. We thank God for His blessing on the various activities undertaken to support home and international mission workers. We would also like to thank everyone involved in the work of WfM and to let them know it is greatly appreciated.

COMMITTEE: Kirsty Boyd has adapted quickly to her new role as President of the WfM. We are sorry to be saying farewell to Sandra Bain. Sandra has served actively & faithfully on the committee for 12 years, and we will all miss her.

DAY AWAY 2010: Planning is well underway for the 2010 WfM Away Day in Aviemore's Macdonald Conference Centre. The date is Saturday 25th September. We look forward to having Ann Benton speak on the theme, 'Living for God's Glory', and Karina MacLeod giving a missionary focus.

RECIPE BOOKS: Since the last Annual Meeting, sales of both books 1 & 2 have enabled WfM to give the following donations through the Disaster and Relief Fund to areas of natural disaster:

£5,000 in Oct 09 to the Philippines & Indonesia
£5,000 in Feb 10 to Tearfund for Haiti

INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS BOARD: Margaret Smith and Christine Mackenzie represent WfM at Board meetings. Kirsty Boyd joins them in support of women missionaries home on furlough. They have interviewed Jenny Wilson (South Africa), Angela Reid and Julia Smith on home-leave with their husbands from the Church's mission fields.

PRAYER NOTES: Daphne Douglas continues to faithfully compile the monthly Missionary Prayer Notes.

LINK PEOPLE: Hazel Morrison is now overseeing WfM Link people to ensure relevant information is passed from the Committee to WfM groups and individual women throughout the Church. ICT COMMITTEE: This group consists of Alison MacDonald, Joan Montgomery and Kirsty Boyd, who have produced high quality leaflets and posters to advertise WfM's work.

WfM PAGE: Alison Macdonald continues to edit the page in The Record.

SUPPORT-A-VOLUNTEER: During 2009/10, there were 4 young Free Church members who received financial support to help them serve as volunteers in mission areas. More information can be found on the FC website.

PROJECT: At the time of writing, the 'Lighting up Learning' project has already provided needed funds to SU Peru for deaf children, as well as contributing two quarterly salaries for Diana, the BINCO Librarian. The end of project in May 2010 total was £29,500.

ANNUAL THEME AND BIBLE STUDY: The Annual Theme for this year has been 'Where your treasure is...' Bible Study material was available on the website.
